

Prosecution of Thanh Huu Thai by the Architects Registration Board of Victoria

Sunshine & Melbourne Magistrates Court – concluded 22 July 2013

Thanh Huu Thai was found guilty of three charges relating to holding himself out to be an architect when he was not an architect, in breach of the Architects Act 1991.

The Court accepted an undertaking from Mr Thai that he be of good behaviour for a 12 month period, and pay the Board's costs to the amount of $10,000.00.
