

Prosecution of Roger Burns and Roger Burns Pty Ltd

Melbourne Magistrates' Court - 31 August 2016

Roger Burns pleaded guilty to four charges relating to holding out as an architect and to using the protected term 'architectural design'. Roger Burns Pty Ltd pleaded guilty to eight charges relating to holding out as an architect and to using the protected term 'architectural design'.

Both accused had committed the offences through advertising on the internet.

Both Roger Burns and Roger Burns Pty Ltd were sentenced to a 24 month adjourned undertaking without conviction under s 75 of the Sentencing Act 1991. Roger Burns was also ordered to pay $8,000 of the Board's legal costs.

DRAFT